

As the Founder and CEO of Millani, Milla Craig helps organizations across the capital markets ecosystem understand and integrate environmental, social, and governance (ESG) issues into their strategies, decisions, and communications. With over 15 years of experience in institutional equity markets and sustainability consulting, she brings a unique perspective and insight into the evolving expectations and needs of investors, companies, and boards of directors regarding ESG matters. Her mission is to bridge the gap between ESG and mainstream finance, and to empower her clients with the knowledge, tools, and guidance they need to succeed in a changing world. She leverages her extensive network, industry recognition, and thought leadership to deliver high-quality advisory services, industry analysis, workshops, and presentations on ESG topics. Milla is also actively involved in several initiatives and organizations that promote sustainable finance and responsible investment, such as the Responsible Investment Association of Canada, the Finance and Sustainability Initiative of Finance Montréal, and the SASB Financials Sector Working Group. She has received the 2017 Clean16 Award and the 2020 Women of Distinction Award in Business and Entrepreneurship for her contributions to the field.
